

BRENDA ABDILLA, PCC

Executive & Leadership Coach

Brenda Abdilla is a distinguished authority in leadership development and organizational excellence. With her vast experience and unwavering passion, she has become the foremost coach and facilitator, dedicated to enhancing the performance of teams and the effectiveness of leadership.

As a highly sought-after executive leadership coach, Brenda specializes in working with leaders aiming to enhance their team engagement. Remarkably, over 90% of Brenda's clients successfully tackle their core leadership challenges within just one year of partnering with her.

Brenda's approach is decidedly different. She brings a solid business-centric background to her work with leaders, entrepreneurs, and high-level career coaching clients. Brenda understands the pressure and uncertainty (VUCA) present in today's business environment and empowers her clients to significantly improve their team communication, time management and efficiency, stress management, decision-making, critical thinking, and all of the elements of corporate visibility and success in their role.

TODAY'S PROFESSIONAL WORKFORCE IS IN DESPERATE NEED OF 3 IMPORTANT SKILLS:

1. Conquering overwhelm in order to prioritize their ever-growing task list.
2. Improved understanding and communication with their co-workers and team.
3. Self-reflection and self-understanding as a path to understanding others.

Each of Brenda's programs addresses these three critical elements as well as the latest brain science and research to support the content she brings to the group. All of Brenda's programs are interactive, customized and practical and relevant to today's workforce.
